PATHWAYS: A living faith is a searching faith—it “seeks understanding.”

Reflecting on the PATHWAYS course, one participant wrote: “Getting ready to come to each class, I felt like the two disciples on the road to Emmaus—an excitement; a burning for more knowledge.”

Are you looking for an opportunity to learn more about our Catholic faith without the pressure of tests and homework? If so, consider PATHWAYS, the diocesan-sponsored adult faith formation course. Join others who are choosing this particular path on their journey of faith. Each week you will be introduced to a new topic such as: the mystery of God, the truth of Scripture, or how anyone can pray. You will also be provided with guidance and resources to continue to further explore each topic. All materials are provided.

Beginning this Fall 2009, PATHWAYS will be offered at two sites: Tuesdays at St. Joseph Parish, Uniontown and Thursdays at St. Thomas More University Parish, Indiana. For more information contact the Office for Lay Ecclesial Ministry: Email—pathways@dioceseofgreensburg.org or phone—724-837-0901, ext. 240, or log onto the diocesan website at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org and click on the PATHWAYS logo on the home page.
