From the Pastor

A Lenten Journey of God's Grace

Traditionally when we begin Lent we focus on what we plan to do for the next six weeks to prepare for Easter. Usually that means recognizing some aspect of our lives that we want to work on. We might choose to do some sort of sacrifice or give something up. Well, today we are reminded about what the real meaning of this season is all about, Baptism. The liturgy for this first Sunday of Lent reminds us of how abundant God's grace is. We see this in the goodness of God in creation found in the reading from Genesis, the promise of righteousness through Christ's gift from St. Paul and Jesus' own words from the gospel: "The Lord your God shall you worship, and God alone shall you serve."

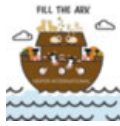

Even though our first reading tells us of Adam and Eve's fall from grace, it is not speaking about sin as much as it refers to God's grace. When we focus so much on sin we are basically turning in on ourselves and away from Christ's goodness and mercy. If we use this time of Lent to focus only on our sinfulness, it will not help us to embrace the new life that Easter brings.

When we think about the "original sin" of Adam and Eve our thoughts drift back to that idea of a "stain" that needed taken away. This of course was done through the gift of Baptism. It was through this sacrament that we were once again made clean and filled once again with God's grace. That is how we most often look back and define what Adam and Eve did for all of humanity. However, when we focus so much on sin and what sin can do, we tend to overlook the grace that God has showered upon us. Sometimes we can become so blinded by the effects of "original sin" that we totally overlook the fact that God's creation is a great gift and a great calling.

St. Paul is telling us that sin is neither the first nor the last word of human history; rather we are reminded that human history is blessed with God's overabundant grace that was gained through the obedience of Christ. Through Christ, we have been blessed with overabundant life, and creation as well as human existence, are to be enjoyed as God's original and constant blessing.

Sin and grace always present us with choices in life. Temptation forces us into making a choice that can either help us or hurt us. Lent is a good time to think about all of this and try to focus on the blessings and grace that God puts before us in life. Good choices help us to conform more perfectly to Christ and help us to be faithful to our baptismal identity as the Body of Christ. Sinful choices sidetrack us on our journey and weaken our identity as the Body of Christ.

Penitential practices in Lent are not about suffering for the sake of suffering, instead they are meant to expand us beyond self-preoccupation to new self-knowledge, which leads us to concern for the good of others. Lent is a time of conversion, a time when we become more perfectly who we are, the Body of Christ. This is Lent's challenge and invitation!

The Gift of Life!

The most urgent question facing our world is whether we can act quickly enough to save the Earth and its inhabitants. Noah faced a similar question thousands of years ago. In biblical times, the actions of people brought on God's flood. Today, we are the ones who threaten to destroy God's creation. Today's flood takes the form of war, environmental destruction and massive poverty and hunger – all problems created by greed and injustice. God told Noah to build an ark and to take every kind of animal into it. To save the Earth for our children and future generations, we too must build an Ark of refuge. As Noah drew upon faith and hope to secure a future for his people, so we must draw on faith and hope to build a future with no hunger and a healthy environment.

We can all do our part by helping our parish purchase an ARK through Heifer International. Each week of Lent, I will let you know just which animals have boarded the ark!

Growing in this Season of Lent

Each of us in our own way tries to become more aware of God's goodness during this season of Lent. The greatest gift Our Lord left us is His very presence in the Eucharist. It would be nice if we all try to make a little effort to attend liturgy more often. As the fullness of Christ becomes more real for us, the better we are as people and certainly we will all make better choices in life. Also during Lent, at Epiphany of Our Lord Church, we will offer Taeze prayer on Monday evening at 6:00 p.m., as well as Stations on Friday at 6:00 p.m.
