REFLECTION - 5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR A ACTS 6:1-7;

Ps. 33 1-2, 4-5,18-19; 1 Pt. 2:4-9; Jn. 14:1-12.

Dear brothers and sisters,

In this Fifth Sunday of Easter, Year A, Jesus says: "I am the way, the truth, and the life." He does not show us a way, He is the Way. He does not just teach truth, He is the Truth. He does not only give life, He is the Life.

This means that our faith is not simply about following rules, it is about a relationship with a Person. To believe in Jesus is to walk with Him, to trust Him, and to allow Him to lead us, even when we do not fully understand the path.

In the First Reading, we also see the early Church responding to challenges with wisdom and unity. They organized themselves so that the mission of the Church could continue effectively. It reminds us that faith must be lived, structured, and expressed in service.

So the question for us is this: is Jesus truly the way that guides my decisions, the truth that shapes my thinking, and the life that sustains me?

PRAYER

May the Lord Jesus, who is the Way, guide our steps.

May He, who is the Truth, enlighten our minds.

May He, who is the Life, strengthen and sustain us always.

And may Almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

New week blessings to each and everyone of you.

Shalom

Fr. Anthony
